CHICAGO, FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

THE ARKANSAS DERBY.

Next Monday the first stake race of the "legitimate" racing season of 1902 for three-year-olds will be decided when the Arkansas Derby has passed into history at Little Rock. It is a dash of one mile, $5 entrance, $45 additional to start, with $750 added, and is likely to be a race of some moment. The entries, all being eligible to start, are as follows:

George C. Bennett's blk. c. Ed Austin, by Wagner—May Kennedy.
George C. Bennett's b. c. Aladdin, by St. George—Merry Wise.
George C. Bennett's ch. c. Herodiade, by Hanover—Druidess.
J. Burrow's br. g. Hainault, by St. Carlo—Libbertiffibbet.
S. C. Hildreth's ch. c. McChesney, by Macduff—Manola Mason.
S. C. Hildreth's ch. c. Lucien Appleby, by St. George—Levee.

C. P. Kennedy's ch. f. Florrie S., by Pirate of Penzance—Florence M.
Wade McLemore's ch. f. Huntressa, by Pirate of Penzance—Sayonora.

R. R. Rice's b. g. Juvenile, by Juvenal—Vivacity.
R. R. Rice's ch. g. Varner, by St. Florian—Mary Winifred.

R. R. Rice's b. f. Bandrol, by Requit—Bandy.
J. W. Schorr's br. c. Major Tenny, by Tenny—Rose.

J. W. Schorr's ch. c. H. L. Coleman, by Farandole—Orchid.
J. W. Schorr's b. f. Miss Edd, by Esher—Miss Nailer.

J. W. Schorr & Co.'s b. f. Flora Pomona, by Florist—Fanny Willoughby.
J. U. Storde's ch. c. St. Tammany, by St. Blaise—Seaweed.

J. U. Storde's b. c. Prowl, by Prig—Madcap.
E. Trotter's b. f. Lingo, by Henry Young—Lineage.

How many of these will go to the post has not been clearly indicated as yet, but it is evident that the material for a very interesting contest is here. Herodiade, Flora Pomona, Aladdin and McChesney have been working well at Memphis and may be sent over. Hainault and Huntressa, a good filly, please critics at Little Rock, and of course the New Orleans candidates, Lingo, Prowl and St. Tammany are in the best of racing condition.

NORTHERN CIRCUIT ENTRIES.

The recently closed stakes for the Fort Erie and Highland Park meetings secured the following entries:

FORT ERIE.

The Canadian Derby, 3-year-olds, 1 1/4 miles.... 40
The Buffalo Stakes, 2-year-olds, 4 1/2 furlongs... 39
The Iroquois Hotel Stakes, 2-year-olds, 5-8 mile... 45
The Hamilton Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, 7 1/2 furlongs..... 91
Total..... 215

HIGHLAND PARK.

The Frontier Stakes, 3-year-olds, 1 1/8 miles..... 38
The Detroit Stakes, 2-year-olds, 5-8 mile..... 57
The Oakland Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, 1 mile..... 78
The Highland Park Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, 3/4 mile..... 90
Total..... 263

These totals are really remarkable in view of the great attractions proffered elsewhere this year and presage successful and prosperous meetings. Such cracks as Abe Frank, McChesney, Aladdin, Lucien Appleby, Lord Quex, Merriment and Foundling are entered in the Canadian Derby, and all around the horses nominated class well with those of former years.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Of the horses now located at Clinton Park, Little Rock, and eligible to the Arkansas Derby, Hainault, a brown colt by St. Carlo—Libbertiffibbet, has done the best work, having worked a mile with weight up in 1:44, which is excellent time over this track.

Owners and trainers there think that if Hildreth should send his $10,000 beauty, McChesney, to compete for the Derby, he will have to be right on edge to beat Hainault. Huntressa, also a candidate for the Arkansas Derby, has not yet received her fast work for the race, but has been given plenty of light work and does all that has been asked of her in handy fashion. She looks well and has grown considerably.

Capt. R. R. Rice had his Derby candidate, Varner, and that great handicap horse, Wax Taper, which defeated some of the best horses in the east last year, on the track Tuesday. Varner had to be pulled to Wax Taper in their work, showing that the great horse is not near himself as yet. The best work and fastest time has been done by Little Chico, which worked five furlongs in 1:01, which would indicate that the track is in much better condition and faster than in former years.

Richard Williams had out a bunch of Schreiber's two-year-olds last Monday, the finest among them being a brown colt by Sain, and a half brother to the good filly Sofala. He worked the three-year-olds Otis, Dewey and Schwalbe together. Dewey easily outworked the other two, but Williams is very sweet on Otis and says that when they go to the races Otis will just as easily turn the tables. Peaceful, Maximus, Lunar, Sweet Dream and Orleans of the older division, have been given plenty of work and will be ready to go to the post when the bell taps on the first day of the meeting, Monday, March 24.

Some of the owners who will arrive the last of the week are: John F. Schorr, George C. Bennett, W. W. Finn, J. U. Storde, Ed Trotter, McDaniels & Co., Dan LaMasney, R. N. Vestal, Gus Lanka, Ownbey & Hatfield, James Arthur, W. H. Laird, C. C. McCafferty, Charles Rowe, W. W. Lyle, and Tom Nepper.

P. Dunne arrived at Memphis from Shreveport last Wednesday and had a busy morning with his horses. Silurian and Henry Zitt were sent a mile in 1:46, with Silurian having the better of the argument. Emathion and Memnon, Dunne's American Derby candidates, went five furlongs in 1:04. Memnon tired badly at the finish. On the strength of a mile in 1:45, which Flora Pomona accomplished with plenty in reserve, it is likely that she will be sent to Little Rock to represent John W. Schorr in the Arkansas Derby. Charles W. Meyer, from the same stable, was rated six furlongs in 1:18. Alan-a-Dale was out on the track for the first time in several days, but only breezed.

Ballet, one of the greatest brood mares in America, is dead at the home of her owner, George H. Clay, proprietor of Balgowan Stud. She was chloroformed by the veterinary, Robert Bryan, who attended Hanover in his last hours. Ballet was 31 years old, one year older than was Pocahontas, the greatest of all brood mares at the time of her death. She was the dam of Modesty, Bluegrass Belle, Elizabeth L., Peg Woffington, Busted, etc. Her produce won over $100,000 on the turf in eighty-five races.

Lexington veterinary surgeons have just decided that W. C. Whitney's great mare Thora will not be able to breed again. Mr. Whitney bought her in 1897 from Charles Reed of Fairview Stud, Tennessee, for $12,500. Since she has been in Mr. Whitney's possession she has never borne a foal, although she has been bred to the best stallions in the country.

Gondola, the aged and wonderful brood mare, dam of Senorita, the queen of the turf in her day, by Virgil, and owned by Col. W. S. Barnes dropped a brown colt by Prince of Monaco at the Melbourne Stud last Sunday. The colt is of immense size, has four white feet and is considered the largest foal ever dropped at Melbourne, which is regarded as wonderful because Gondola is now 24 years of age.

Winner—B. g. by Foul Shot—Dulcie Larondie.
Went to post at 2:16. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Killdoe, from a bad start, quickly raced into a winning lead and stalled off Ned Dennis' rush at the end unexpectedly well. The latter, also off indifferently, ran in much improved form. Loyal S. ran an extra good race for him at the distance. Berendos improved his position throughout. Silver Fizz, running next to the rail, suffered from crowding. Panamint pulled up very lame. Montana Peeress was hustled off her stride in the first quarter.

Overweights—Loyal S., 1 pound; Berendos, 1; Legal Maxim, 1; George Clark, 2.

Time, 25, 50, 1:02, 1:09.

Winner—Ch. g. by Rey del Sierras—Jessie R.
Went to post at 2:41. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Royal Rogue trailed behind Lass of Langden, apparently able to pass her at will. The filly, however, stuck to her work unexpectedly well and the winner barely got up in the last stride and was surely short. Lass of Langden ran surprisingly well. Dwight Way managed to retain his hold on third place through Conley's energetic riding. Chandoo went very wide on the turn. Derby Winner quit badly. Cathello and Claudator can do better, and the latter was handicapped by the slow going.

Scratched—30941 El Chihuahua, 117.
Royal Rogue, show, out. Lass of Langden, show, 8 to 5. Dwight Way, show, evens.

Time, 12, 25, 44.

Winner—Ch. g. by Altamax—Sonomis.
Went to post at 3:11. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Alsono is a good looker and highly tried. He decisively made good at the first asking and sustained a superior order of speed gamely throughout. Ora Viva was carried wide on the turn and finished very strong and is evidently an improving colt. Donami off poorly made up much ground running close to the rail on the turn and finished strongly. Delsegno unexpectedly failed in the stretch. He is on the small order and high weight probably bothered him.

Scratched—(30223) Lizzie Rice 115.
Overweights—Alsono, 1 pound.
Alsono, show, out. Ora Viva, show, 1 to 3. Donami, show, evens. Delsegno, show, out.

Time, 24, 50, 1:16.

Winner—B. g. by Brutus—Decoy Duck.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Duckoy found the soft going grateful and was skillfully placed throughout. Seemingly in difficulties on the turn, he came away well in the stretch and finished strongly. February, off poorly, displayed amazingly improved form, but an unlucky and incompetent ride combined to defeat her. School for Scandal was unlucky to have the position next to the rail in the deepest going throughout. Jerid finished fast. Botany was unable to sustain his fine speed long enough. Afghan was handicapped by the slow going and unable to concede the weight. He has worked well and is best on a fast track. Golden Cottage was evidently short, but looks good.

Scratched—(30945) John Peters, 98.
Overweights—February, 4 pounds; Arion, 4.
Duckoy, show, out. February, show, 2 1/2 to 1. School for Scandal, show, 1 to 3.

Went to post at 4:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Horton was skillfully placed, came through next to the rail in the stretch and just got up in time to beat the badly ridden Jim Hale. The latter led the field to the last stride and was caught napping. Black Dick suffered from the slow early pace and was outprinted in the last quarter. Mac Gyle was choked and hauled about in the first quarter and went wide on the first turn and failed to make good when called on in the stretch. Galanthus was outclassed.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Quiet got away poorly but steadily moved up on the extreme outside, forged to the front in the last furlong, won going away and was much the best. Miss Mae Day is fresh and good and sustained a fast pace throughout. J. Boggs is in rare form and closed a tremendous gap under a bad ride. Bernota went well. Ada N. was crossed at the start and came from a long way back in the stretch. Colonial Girl, a slow beginner and at a great disadvantage in a big field, was going strongly at the end. Dollie Wiethoff was prominent to the last sixteenth.
Overweights—Parsifal, 1 pound; Our Lizzie, 2.

ROYAL ROGUE DUCKOY were our two winners yesterday.

TODAY

two royal good things that will win by a block. One of them starts in the first race and the other one goes in the Futurity Course. This horse has worked three-quarters in 1:13, a trial that will beat crackerjacks, let alone the cheap company in today's event.

BANISH

our one horse wire from our correspondents at New Orleans, won galloping. Friday our one horse wire will read: Play heavily, as this good thing will have to fall down to lose. Saturday one grand long, long shot that will win as easily as Deutschland, given by us. We never advertise specials unless we are positive they are such.

Harrison F. and Lady Riley were none to well handled. Ohio King showed little speed. Laroquise ran out on all turns and was eased up when beaten.
